

Imagine you get to Heaven and someone tells you:

"I got here because you weren't afraid to tell me about Jesus."

DEVOTION:

One of the greatest gifts we've ever received is the gift of salvation. When we truly understand what Jesus has done for us, sharing Him with others becomes less of a duty and more of a joy.

Jesus' final words to His disciples were clear:

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..."
— Matthew 28:19

This wasn't just a command for pastors or missionaries—it was for every believer. If you have experienced His grace, you have a story to tell.

Sometimes we hesitate to share our faith because we feel unqualified. We think we need all the answers. But Jesus never said, "Have everything figured out." He said, "Go." The Holy Spirit does the convicting and transforming—our role is simply to witness.

Sharing Jesus can look like:

- Living in a way that reflects His love
- Offering to pray for someone
- Telling your testimony
- Inviting someone to church
- Speaking truth gently in conversations

And remember:

"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"
— Romans 10:15

God sees every small act of obedience. Even when we don't see immediate results, He is working in hearts.

Reflection Prayer

Lord,
Thank You for saving me and changing my life. Give me boldness and compassion to share You with others. Help me see people the way You see them. Open doors for conversations and give me the right words at the right time. Use my life to point others to You.
Amen.
