

“Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth!”

— Psalm 96:1

DEVOTION:

Singing is more than music; it is an expression of our hearts toward God. When we sing praises to Him, we remind ourselves of His goodness, faithfulness, and love. Even in difficult seasons, we can rejoice because our joy is rooted not in our circumstances, but in who God is.

Today, let your heart overflow with praise. Sing to the Lord with joy, thank Him for His blessings, and remember that He is always worthy of our worship.

Questions to reflect on:

- What does music mean to you?
- How do you experience God through music?
- Have you ever felt God speaking to you through a song?
- How does music help you during difficult times?
- What emotions do you experience when you worship through music?

Prayer: Lord, fill my heart with joy and praise. Help me to sing to You in every season and rejoice in Your goodness. Amen.
