

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

“GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD,
FOR HE IS GOOD; HIS LOVE
ENDURES FOREVER.”
- PSALM 107:1

DEVOTION:

Thanksgiving is more than a holiday—it's a posture of the heart. Psalm 107 reminds us that gratitude begins with recognizing who God is: good and full of enduring love.

Often, our thankfulness can depend on circumstances. When life feels abundant, gratitude flows easily. But Scripture calls us to something deeper—a gratitude anchored in God's unchanging character, not in our ever-changing situations.

When we pause to look back, we see His fingerprints on our lives—moments of protection, provision, correction, and unexpected grace. Even in seasons of loss or waiting, God's steadfast love holds firm. Thanksgiving becomes an act of faith:

“Lord, I thank You not because everything is perfect, but because You are with me in everything.”

Gratitude also reorients the soul. It shifts our focus from what we lack to what God has already given...from anxiety to trust...from grumbling to worship. Thanksgiving opens our eyes to daily mercies we might otherwise overlook.

So today, pause and remember His goodness. Let gratitude rise—not from fleeting feelings but from the truth of who God is.

Prayer:

Father, thank You for Your goodness and unfailing love. Thank You for the seen and unseen ways You have cared for me. Teach me to be thankful in all circumstances, trusting that You are always working for my good. Create in me a heart that remembers Your faithfulness and celebrates Your blessings daily. In Jesus' name, Amen.
